

Would like to invite you to a panel discussion on

Domicile and service provider selection for Start-Up managers

starting at 4.30pm, on Wednesday, October 5, and followed by a cocktail party at the:

Grosvenor House Hotel, Park Lane, London W1

The presentation and debate will cover the following topics, amongst others:

- Where can Start-Up managers go for independent advice on domicile and service provider selection decisions?
- The Start-Up dilemma: to go with the more expensive but well established or less well established but more competitively priced?
- The importance different categories of investors attach to a manager's domicile and service providers (based up research conducted by International Fund Investment)
- Advice on how to launch a fund in difficult market conditions

Programme

4.15 – 4.30 Registration

(Please note that this discussion is preceded by one on the Emerging Fund Domiciles. Attendees are very welcome to join this event too.)

4.30 – 6.00 Panel discussion

Speaking on the panel:

Joey Garcia, Senior Associate, Isolac

Mark Mathias, Partner, Absolute Partners

Simon Osborn, Editor, FundDomiciles.com and project leader on IFI Global's Start-Up Advisory Service

Michael Wilson, Executive Vice President, State Street

This event is free to attend for investors, fund managers and FundDomiciles.com members.